

MC2 (SW/AW) Scott A. McCall

Assistant Leading Petty Officer
NPASE West Det. Northwest

MC2 McCall reported to his first duty assignment on board USS NIMITZ (CVN 68) in December 2006. From 2007 to 2009, he was assigned to the print crew, ship's newspaper NIMITZ News, and SITE TV. During NIMITZ 2007 Western Pacific (WESTPAC)/Arabian Gulf deployment, he was responsible for creating all print and graphics work associated with the ship's first ever visit to Chennai, India.

In October 2008, he was temporary assigned to Commander, Naval Air Forces (CNAF) assisting in the plan of actions and developing the media press kits for the USS RONALD REAGAN (CVN 76) 2008 WESTPAC homecoming. He also served CNAF as an escort for 30 distinguished visitors embarked on board the USS JOHN C. STENNIS (CVN 74).

From August 2009 to March 2010, he served as the ship's Public Affairs Leading Petty Officer (LPO). During the 2009/2010 WESTPAC, he led five Sailors in the production of more than 120 news releases and 12 editions of the NIMITZ News internal news magazine.

In 2010, as Photo Journalism (PHOJO) team LPO, he led the Media Department in the production of more than 80 news articles, and led the PHOJO team in converting the NIMITZ News magazine into a daily publication titled, "The Relevant". He also guided the PHOJO team in the design and production of the ship's 400-page 2009/2010 WESTPAC deployment cruisebook, which was awarded a first-place CHINFO Merit Award. He also prepared and coordinated the 2010 INSURV plan to include space preparation and media coverage resulting in zero discrepancies.

He served as the ship's Media Department LPO during DPIA in 2011, and led 24 Sailors in the production of more than one million print jobs, converting the ship's daily newspaper into a DPIA weekly newspaper, and coordinated all photographic shoots.

He is currently assigned as Assistant LPO at Navy Public Affairs Support Element West, Det. Northwest. He also volunteers as a public relations representative for the non-profit organization Stand Up For Kids. He is also pursuing his Master's in Public Administration at DeVry University/Keller Graduate School of Management. He resides in Silverdale, Wash. with his wife, Crishanda, and three year old son, Kendyl.
